

260E & 260F Grants Iowa New Jobs Training Program

The Iowa New Jobs Training Program (260E) was developed to assist businesses that are creating new positions or new jobs. If the company is expanding operations, or relocating to a new facility in the state, the 260E program can provide flexible funding to meet a wide variety of training and employee development needs.

The Iowa Jobs Training Program (260F) is a state sponsored program designed to assist Iowa-based businesses with the training and development for existing employees.

Tyler McCarville, Employer Program Developer at Kirkwood Training & Outreach Services will be our February 2016 assigned ECI presenter. Prior to that Tyler held positions in sales and in political campaigns. Tyler earned his Bachelor's degree in Political Science from the University of Northern Iowa and Master's degree in Higher and Postsecondary Education from Argosy University. Businesses attending this training will learn about :

- Training fund creation and how does it work
- Who is eligible?
- Valuable program services that are part of the Grant
- Why the programs are administered by community colleges?
